Re: Time, Inc.
Case No. 02-CA-134835

Dear Mr. Shinnars:

On August 23, 2016, Counsel for the General Counsel submitted an extension of time request to file Exceptions to the ALJD in this matter until November 1, 2016, which was granted the same day. The Charging Party consented to that request, and Respondent did not object. That request was made in large part due to the length of the transcript of the hearing in this matter, which is just over 1200 pages, the over 200 exhibits received into the record, several voluminous, and the myriad factual and legal issues raised by the ALJD.

Pursuant to Section 102.46(j) of the Board's Rules and Regulations, Counsel for the General Counsel also requests permission to file a brief in support of exceptions of no more than 100 pages. Counsel for the General Counsel makes this request for the same reasons it filed its extension of time request in this matter; that is, the extensive length of the transcript and large volume of exhibits, the length and density of the fifty page single-spaced ALJD, and the many complex legal and factual issues raised by that ALJD.

Counsel for the General Counsel has conferred with counsel for the Charging Party and Respondent in this matter, and neither have any objection to this request.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

Michael J. Bilik
Counsel for the Acting General Counsel
